DEATHS

DEATH CLAIMS MRS. JOE B. WATSON

Mrs. Joe B. Watson, of Little York, Ill., died in St. Francis Hospital in Peoria, Ill., Oct. 18, after being taken there as a polio patient the day before her death.

Jane Elizabeth Whiteman was born March 16, 1925, at Little York, Ill., the daughter of Ray and Elsie Glenn Whiteman. She was educated in Illinois, graduating from Monmouth College, Monmouth, Ill., with B. S. degree in chemistry and biology.

Her marriage to Joseph B. Watson, son of Susie L. and Joe F. Watson, of Appomattox, Va., took place March 31 1945, at Covington, Ky. and they had lived their entire married life in Little York, Ill.

Mrs. Joe B. Watson was a member of the Little York United Presbyterian Church and was active in all church affairs. She was a member of AAUW,the American Legion Auxiliary and the Rebecca Lodge of Little York, Ill. Her home, her church and her community were her interests in life.

Surviving with the husband are three children, Billy Joe, Kevin Lynn and Carol Jane; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Whiteman, of Little York, Ill., and one brother, Glenn Whiteman, of Quincy, Ill.

Funeral services were held Thursday, Oct. 21, at the Little York United Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Charles Steel officiated. Burial was in Biggsville Cemetery, near Monmouth, Ill.

WILLIAM W. SCRUGGS

Spout Spring, Oct. 27.- William Walker Scruggs, 83, retired farmer, died tonight in a Lynchburg hospital after an illness of three weeks.

Born in Appomattox County Nov. 28, 1870, he spent his lifetime there. He was the son of William Melvin and Cornelia Gannaway Scruggs and the widower of Rosa Routon Scruggs.

He was a member of the Hebron Baptist Church.

Survivors include two sons: E. Carlyle Scruggs and W. Clayton Scruggs, both of Spout Spring; two half-brothers, H. J. Scruggs, Lynchburg, and A. T. Scruggs, Drewryville; and two half-sisters, Mrs. H. G. Spencer, Lynchburg, and Mrs. Schriver, Chicago.

Funeral services will be conducted from the Hebron Baptist Church Friday at 3:00 P. M. by the pastor, the Rev. Floy Cox. Interment will be in the church cemetery.

MR. CLIFFORD L. GODSEY

Graveside services for Clifford L. Godsey, 64, who died at his home in Norfolk Friday afternoon after an illness of three years, were conducted Sunday, October 24, at 2:00 P. M. in the family cemetery in Appomattox County by Dr. Carl A. Collins, Jr.

He was born in Appomattox County January 14, 1890, the son of Robert Lee and Hattie Powell Godsey. He is survived by his wife, Willie Martin Godsey; four brothers Wiley W. Godsey, Norfolk; Otha A. Godsey, Portamouth; Harry O. Godsey, Kirmitt E. Godsey, Baltimore, Md.; John W. Godsey, San Francisco, California; and two sisters, Mrs. Annie Jamerson, Lynchburg, and Mrs. Bessie C. Cowles, of Baltimore.

Pallbearers were: C. D. Godsey Winston Godsey, Freddy Godsey Howard Jamerson, Pete Jamerson, Thurman Jamerson. Special music was provided by Mrs. Collins and Mrs. Jesse M. Templeton.

SELECTIVE SERVICE ANNOUNCES TESTS

Major General Lewis B. Hershey, Director of Selective Service, has announced the fifth series of Selective Service College Qualification Tests will be given on Thursday, December 9, 1954, and Thursday, April 21, 1955, at more than 400 testing centers.

Some 550,000 students are expected ready been tested under this program, which began in 1951.

Students currently deferred on the basis of test scores or placed in classes standing number approximately 162,000.

Students whose academic standing at the end in January 1955 have been selected to take the December test, if they will have a test score on file at their local boards before the end of their academic year, at which time their boards will reopen and consider their cases to see whether they should again be deferred as students.

Applicants for the tests will make applications for the December 1954 and April 21, 1955 administrations to Science Research Associates envelopes which may be obtained at local boards. Bulletin of information concerning the test are available at the local boards.

SILVER WEDDING ANNIVERSARY FOR REV. AND MRS. BAILEY

The Reverend and Mrs. David L. Bailey, in celebration of their silver wedding anniversary, re-acted the marriage ceremony Sunday afternoon at the Evergreen Baptist Church, where Mr. Bailey is pastor.

The ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. Benjamin R. Bruner, pastor of the Farmville Baptist Church, at 2:30.

The ceremony was performed before an improvised altar, banked with cedars, standing baskets of white chrysanthemums, and candelabra, with candles being lit by the ccunple's sons, David Jr. and Bob.

As the guests assembled, Mr. Loyd P. White, associational W. M. U. pianist, of Keysville, presented a program of nuptial music at the piano, and accompanied the Rev. Floy Cox, of Hebron, who sang "Always" and "The Lord's Prayer. The traditional wedding marches were used.

Mrs. Bailey wore a bridal gown, and marched in on the arm of the Rev. B. F. Robinson, who represented the one to give her in marriage.

Betty Bailey was her mother's maid of honor. Mrs. T. W. Massie sister of the "bride" and Miss Hazel Moon, missionary to Nigeria, were the bridesmaids.

The Rev. W. H. O'Neil, of Andersonville, served as "best man" and ushers were the Rev. L. P. Brown, of Appomattox; and the Rev. Edgar S. Price, of Red Oak. Miss Judy Cox was "flower girl."

Following the "ceremony," a reception was held in the basement of the church. Mrs. W. A. Odham, Rice; and Mrs. J. B. Cooke, Darlington Heights, served the wedding cake, and Mrs Thomas Richardson, Appomattox, served at the punch bowl.

Miss Rosa Mae Wooldridge, chairman of the Business Woman's Circle of the Evergreen Church, was responsible for the exquisite decorations. She also registered the guests in "The Bride's Book." One hundred and seventy were registered, including many from out of town.

HEAVY CROP OF DOVES IN PIEDMONT

Dove hunters of the piedmont region of the state report to the Commission of Game and Inland Fisheries that there is a heavier population of doves than there was in 1953.

Dove shooting during the past few years has increased steadily in popularity in Virginia. Thousands are now shooting doves where 10 years ago only hundreds were enjoying the sport, according to I. T. Quinn, executive director of the Game Commission.
